Aharon Danziger

Having started playing able bodied volleyball at the national level in 1970, as an amputee I started playing standing volleyball for Israel at the World Championships in Germany in 1976.

The person who had the greatest influence on my development in the sport was our national Head Coach Eliyahu Rabina.

From 1976 to 1996 I was involved as a team player on the Israel National Team.

1976 World Championships – Germany - Gold
1976 Paralympic Games – Toronto - Gold
1979 World Championships – The Netherlands - Gold
1980 Paralympic Games – The Netherlands - Gold
1984 Paralympic Games - Long Island USA - Gold
1985 European Championships – Norway - Silver
1986 World Championships – Israel - Silver
1987 European Championships – France - Bronze EC
1988 Paralympic Games – Seoul - Silver
1989 European Championships – Poland – Bronze
1989 World Championships – USA - Silver
1992 Paralympic Games - Barcelona
1996 Paralympic Games – Atlanta

As well as being an amputee player I was also an Orthopaedist physician/doctor and classifier.

I acted as a consultant on the development of the Standing Volleyball Classification System and from the Atlanta 1996 Paralympic Games to Sydney 2000 my role was as a classifier.
